

A. LANGE & SÖHNE

The traditional Saxon watchmaking brand, the heritage of watchmakers back then in the service of the Royal Saxon Court.

BERNARD FORNAS

A leader, a visionary, a man of values, and, undoubtedly one of the most renowned French managers in the luxury goods industry.

CARTIER

The best known French luxury brand in the world. I started my career in the House, in Japan, and I've held various posts in Europe as well, up to that of President and CEO of Cartier North America.

DEGRISOGONO

The black diamond.

E-SHOP (selling new watches)

Harry Winston has understood the importance of the internet and of social networks in today's world. This is why we are at the moment one of the rare high-end brands to offer a selection of our creations online (only in the USA for the time being).

FAKE WATCHES

Buying counterfeit is supporting organized crime and child labour as well as stealing the creativity and know-how of the watchmaking industry. An action with consequences that the wider public still underestimates.

GOLD

The par excellence noble metal, common in jewellery and watchmaking.

HARRY WINSTON

The most exclusive brand in the world! Being in charge of this emblematic House was my dearest dream.

ITALY

A country I love, where I have spent five wonderful years. A refined and elegant market.

JEWELLERY WATCH

The result of the efforts and know-how of gemmologists, creators and craftsmen that bring together their talents to give birth to exceptional timepieces. Wearing a Harry Winston high-end jewellery watch is the ultimate luxury!

KIDS

The future of the world and a permanent source of joy. Recently father for the seventh time, I savour every moment I spent with my family.

LUXURY GOODS

Exceptional products, emblematic of know-how and quality.

MAXIMILIAN BÜSSER

A man who is part of the history of Harry Winston Timepieces, who has contributed to the success and legitimacy of the House's watchmaking division.

NICOLAS G. HAYEK

An unparalleled entrepreneur, a passionate man who, without being a watchmaker, has left his mark on the watchmaking industry.

OPUS

A platform both creative and technical. A philosophical approach that allows giving birth to exceptional watchmaking creations, out of the ordinary, the fruit of the meeting of enthusiasts and dreamers.

PATEK PHILIPPE

One of the references of haute horlogerie, a mark of excellence and tradition.

QUARTZ

Extreme precision! Electronics in the service of watchmaking.

RICHEMONT

A major group in the luxury sector and a major player in watchmaking and jewellery.

SWISS MADE

With our manufacture in Geneva and a network of subcontractors exclusively in Switzerland, there is no mistake about the origin of our watchmaking products.

TOURBILLON

With our Histoire de Tourbillon collection and creations such as our Winston Midnight GMT Tourbillon, we pay tribute to this extraordinary mechanical invention.

ULTRA THIN WATCH

Wearing an ultra thin is showing one's taste of classic time pieces.

VAN CLEEF & ARPELS

A poetic interpretation of the passing of time.

WOMEN

Inevitable effigies of glamour, women have a special emotional rapport with the watches and jewels they adorn themselves with.

Our House is proud to number famous ambassadors among the greatest stars, already since 1943.

XL SIZE WATCHES

What does the size of the watch matter, when the essential thing is that it suits you, it pleases you and it is pleasant to wear?

YELLOW DIAMONDS

Do you mean Fancy Vivid Yellow ? We have just sold the largest yellow diamond ever to have been evaluated by the GIA: 208 carats!

ZALIUM

Harder than titanium and extremely resistant to corrosion, this alloy is a Harry Winston trademark for watchmaking. Previously only used in our Project Z timepieces, its properties have naturally made it the ideal material for the new Harry Winston sports line.
