

ARTISTS

It is the imagination and the utopia of artists that make up the spice of our daily reality and give it meaning.

BLÜMLEIN GÜNTER

A man whose vision, 25 years ago, opened a royal road for our Manufacture and for Haute Horlogerie overall.

CREATIVITY

Create or disappear: the options are clear, the choice even more so, but it all depends on implementation.

DUOMÈTRE

Two mechanical movements in one, a brilliant idea in the service of elegance and precision.

EXPERTISE

Culture, culture and still culture: the necessary ingredients in all expertise.

FILM FESTIVAL

A partner of the Venice Film Festival, Jaeger-LeCoultre is involved in cinema awareness and in the enrichment of its heritage.

GEOPHYSIC

A mythical chronometer created in 1959 by Jaeger-LeCoultre for the scientists of the International Geophysical Year and offered to the commander of the nuclear submarine Nautilus.

HENRY JOHN BELMONT

To get out of the quartz crisis, he managed to give to hundreds of people working with Jaeger-LeCoultre Manufacture the pride of a job well done and a taste for challenges.

ICÔNE

A true iconic watch, it keeps time, it passes through it and tells its story.

JAEGER-LECOULTRE

180 years of history, 400 patents, 1231 calibres, 1200 persons mastering 180 know-how areas under the same roof. A common passion: the Haute Horlogerie.

KRUGER DIANE

Elegance incarnate. A subtle mix of mastery, warmth and reserve.

LAB

Created in 2007, the Master Compressor Extreme LAB doesn't use any form of lubricant: a feat that watchmakers have sought for 700 years.

NEW

Nothing is created, everything is transformed. Still, our thirst for novelty is unquenchable, since the whole of our being is projected into the future.

ORIGIN

Nothing can be created without foundations, without an identity, without origins. But knowing one's roots is the necessary condition for play and liberation.

PATRIMONY

What our predecessors have achieved is projected into the present and into the future.

QUALITY

Excellence is evident. However, it requires all our energy and allows no slackening.

REVERSO

Much more than a watch: an exhilarating concept that marries beauty and intelligence.

STYLE

Fashion is about appearance, style about attitude. The first one is fleeting, the second lasting.

TRUE

Truth and integrity are the foundations of all long term development.

UNIQUE

Every Jaeger-LeCoultre watch is unique: 95% of the operations involved in their making require the skills of the hand.

VALLÉE DE JOUX

A superb valley with a harsh climate, destined to oblivion, which has however become the Rome of watchmaking complications thanks to the spirit of invention its inhabitants display.

WATCHMAKING

The art of mastering time: our greatest luxury.

XENOPHON

More than 2000 ago, the Greek philosopher proclaimed that acts speak louder than words: it is a philosophy that the Manufacture applies in its everyday practice.

YEARBOOK

The annual art book of Jaeger-LeCoultre, or how to open new cultural horizons starting with the news of a great Watchmaking House.

ZÉLIE LECOULTRE

Without his wife Zélie, Antoine LeCoultre would have never put his inventions into practice or founded the first workshop of Jaeger-LeCoultre Manufacture in 1833. What is man's future without a woman?
